

Privacy Policy

- We take online privacy seriously. You do not want your personal information to fall into the wrong hands and neither does Duck's Village. We are committed to respecting your privacy and sustaining your trust in Duck's Village and our facility and services.
- Duck's Village will never sell your information to any other company. When you visit our website, information about your visit (how you navigate the site) may be collected and stored on an anonymous, aggregate basis. This information is used to measure site activity and to develop ideas for improvement. The information collected may include the time and length of your visit, the pages you look at on our site, and the site you visited just before coming to ours. We may also record the name of your Internet Service Provider.
- The pages within this site are designed to facilitate direct online communications between you and Duck's Village. You may be asked to provide personal information, such as your name, permanent address, social security number, e-mail address, etc. This personal information is stored to enable follow-up communications and/or to facilitate your desire to become a resident. It may also be used for marketing research and other marketing purposes. Please note that your social security number will be securely saved on our server and will only be available to employees with specific credentials giving them permission.
- The information you provide is safe, and is kept strictly confidential. Our server is running with Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) Encryption turned on. That means that the data passed between this server and your web browser is encrypted and not visible to anyone "sniffing" your Internet connection.
